

CELEBRATIONS/OBSERVATIONS

Cultural evenings:

Social/cultural activities not only help students to identify themselves with the institution, but also assist students to develop themselves to improve skills such as, leadership and interpersonal communication. Such activities also eliminate stress keeping their spirit elevated. The students of NSJS exhibit varied talents as they come from different cultural and geographical background.

The students perform skits, dance, song, mono action in view of participating in the annual competitions. Besides this, they also perform during the Gandhi Jayanthi, and other religious festivals for appealing their counterparts and faculties. Street shows are also demonstrated on special occasions.

Sports:

Sports play a pivotal role in shaping one's personality and maintaining good health. NSJS has multiple sport facilities inside the campus to keep fit the students. Vast play grounds are available inside the campus for student's engagement in Football, Volley, Badminton, and other local games. Students compete for the award on these games and winners get rewarded in Annual Function.

Picnic:

A picnic is a wonderful way to break the ice and maintain good and healthy relations. Annually the students along with the faculties enjoy their day out by sightseeing and joining picnic activities. Generally the senior batch students take the lead of site selection, logistic arrangement etc. Entertainment planning also goes side by side by arranging the sound system in the venue, introduction of games/events and rewarding the best performers are planned well in advance.

Observation of national days:

Republic day, Independence day, Gandhi Jayanti, International women's day, Social work day etc. are observed by students with great enthusiasm. These days are considered as days of great achievements when the martyrs or great freedom fighters are paid tribute for their contribution and leadership.

Similarly Lord Ganesha & Devi Saraswati are worshipped by students on Ganesh Chaturthi and Shree Panchami respectively for blessings of Good luck, wisdom, success and prosperity. These celebrations ensure that students find a home away from home. Both the faculty and students join hands together, with great zeal to make these events memorable one also evoking the blessing to have a successful academic and carrier growth. The rituals are conducted by local priests, who not only perform the Pooja but also enlighten on the concept of worshipping .
