

VOLUNTEER SERVICE

It seems like something nice to do for the community. NSJS has a scope of engaging national and overseas volunteers in its academic programmes. International volunteers spending time with students learn our culture and customs. They also take part in community services of distributing relief materials with students.

Few students of techno background also have witnessed the campus activities of academics, presentations, community work etc. extended by students which has given them the inputs of writing exposure visit report of education programme.